Bill _____ Resolution XX

SB-86S-257

1. Whereas, the Department of Language and Literature has revised its
2. Literature/Drama program to include participation in UNF performances as a
3. requirement for the major; and
4. Whereas, the College of Arts and Sciences has instituted a minor in Drama; and
5. Whereas, as a result of the above, this emphasis on participatory,
6. educational theatre not only allows the literature major to combine an interest
7. in drama with production experience, but also, and perhaps more importantly,
8. gives the non-major the opportunity, often absent from other courses, to
9. experience the fundamental forms of human action in which, as social beings,
10. we engage; and
11. Whereas, we recognize that of the performing arts, theatre is one of the 12. most efficacious transmitters of culture in a community; and 13. Whereas, during the 1985-86 academic year, Student Government Association and
14. the College of Arts and Sciences sponsored two successful productions,
15. both in terms of student participation and box office receipts; and
16. Whereas, the impact of these productions on the Jacksonville community
17. has not only increased UNF's visibility, but led to the planning of a
18. cooperative production by Theatre Jacksonville and UNF, as well as to UNF's
19. membership in the newly formed Greater Jacksonville Theatre Association;
20. therefore,
